

Button B for defensive

In the game DLS you are provided 3 buttons that can be used that is A, B and C. When being defensive A button serves to slide the tackle, the B button serves to pressure the opponent. I suggest to combine the two buttons, use B button for opponent pressure, when the opponent is close then press the A button, you will be able to control the ball again.